The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (DJJDP) in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2011-2012 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2011. The use of DJJDP funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed Programs:

Parent Skill Building Programming	Psychological Assessment Services	Substance Abuse assessment/treatment
Mentoring / Interpersonal skill / prosocial skill building	Home-based counseling services	Sex Offender Evaluation/Assessment Svs
Gang prevention/intervention services	Teen Court
	Restitution and Community Service Program

Proposed Program Services should target the following Risk Factors for Delinquency or Repeat Delinquency:

Indicators suggest that they are assaultive, lack prosocial skills and are exhibiting behaviors that result in multiple suspensions from schools. Parents report difficulty supervising youth. Risk indicators suggest that youth are committing offenses at a younger age (majority of target population is in the age range 12-15).

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for Adjudicated Youth:

Peer Domain: Youth are associating with other delinquent peers and peers associated with gangs and are in need of prosocial interpersonal skills.

Individual Domain: Indicators suggest that youth are engaging in behaviors that are risky including substance use/abuse and dangerous sexual practices. Youth are in need of developing prosocial skills and further assessment and treatment services are needed.

Family Domain: Indicators suggest that adjudicated youth live in families with domestic discord, alcohol or substance use by family members, or family members with active criminal and/or gang involvement. Parents possess marginal or inadequate parenting skill levels.

School Domain: Results indicate that 81% of youth had school behaviors that result in frequent suspensions from school.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address the legislatively mandated items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that is shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. Programs that can have a demonstrable impact on the following success factors: a. reduce the use of alcohol or controlled substances; b. reduce subsequent complaints; c. reduce violation of terms of community supervision; d. reduce convictions from subsequent offenses; e. fulfill restitution to victims; and f. increase parental accountability.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications (Program Agreements) for programs addressing the above elements. Information may be obtained from:
