

ABSENTEE VOTING

Absentee voting by mail: To request absentee ballots by mail, the request must be in writing and mailed or delivered to the Board of Elections' office in Yanceyville. This request must include your full name, residence address, date of birth, and address where you would like the ballots to be mailed. You must sign the request.

Any registered voter may request an absentee ballot.

If you are unable to travel to a polling site due to illness or disability a member of your immediate family may write a request for an application for your absentee ballots. Once the completed application is returned, ballots are mailed directly to the voter.

Completed ballots must be received in the Board of Elections office by 5 p.m. on the day prior to the election. Ballots may be mailed or hand-delivered to the Board of Elections office, 139 E Church Street, Yanceyville, North Carolina 27379.

Absentee voting in person: One-Stop Absentee Voting – This is a process in which you appear in person and vote your ballots while in the board office. (No earlier than three weeks prior to the election) Any qualified voter wishing to vote prior to Election Day may vote at the Board of Elections office.

One-Stop Dates and Times for 2010 Primary Election

Board of Elections Office

139 E Church Street, Yanceyville, North Carolina 27379

April 15-30, 2010 (M-F 8:30 am – 5:00 pm)

May 1, 2010 (Sat. 8:30 am – 1:00 pm)