

Quarterly Joint Jurisdictions Meeting
Among Caswell County and the Towns of Yanceyville and Milton
Meeting Minutes | May 15, 2025, 6:00pm, CoSquare

Welcome, blessing, and meal: Representatives were present from Caswell County, the towns of Yanceyville and Milton, and the Chamber of Commerce. Following a blessing, a meal was served at 6:00pm.

General updates: Caswell County Board of Commissioners Chair Tim Yarbrough called the business portion of the meeting to order at 6:32pm.

The Town of Milton's Mayor Angela Upchurch presented updates. These included: 1) a Historic District Streetscape Master Plan/Design provided by Destinations by Design; 2) a sign donation; and 3) the town's restaurants are usually booming on Saturday nights. She described an active downtown and was encouraged about the mix of residents and visitors to the downtown.

The Town of Yanceyville's Mayor Alvin Foster presented updates, which included: 1) a planned 5/29 meeting with NCDOT regarding its current Prioritization schedule and NC-86; 2) planned fireworks for 6/27's celebration of Independence Day; 3) sewer updates; 4) the 6/26 grand opening of Dillard Street Apartments; and 5) plans for a reservoir project to be completed January 2027.

Caswell County Manager Scott Whitaker introduced himself after starting in late April. Chairman Yarbrough presented updates and these included: 1) Cherokee Tobacco's property deal would be closing soon with 39 new jobs anticipated; 2) the annual budget had been presented; and 3) the FY23 audit was finished with progress on FY24. Deputy County Manager Melissa Williamson added that opioid funds would bring about $2M to Caswell from the $1.4B received by the State and also mentioned potential uses and strategies of how to use these funds. She spoke briefly about broadband and the CAB 2.0 results.

Schedule of next meeting: The next meeting was planned for 8/21 at 6:00pm to be hosted by the Town of Yanceyville.

Announcements and upcoming events: The Community Shred Day event would be the following day on 5/16, 10:30am–6:30pm, within Yanceyville's Pavilion area.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned by appropriate motion at 6:51pm.
